timeXtender® Is Named ISV Partner of the Year 2010 by Microsoft

timeXtender is named ISV Partner of the Year by Microsoft Denmark for the second time in three years.

"timeXtender delivers a Business Intelligence tool that can collect data from many different sources. The tool can be implemented easily and at low cost, ensuring a high return on investment. timeXtender's tool has achieved widespread adoption not only locally, but also internationally. They have proven that they master the art of innovation and maintaining a high customer satisfaction rate." said Erik Kaae, Microsoft Denmark Sales Director, Small Medium Solutions & Partners, when timeXtender was presented the award.

The partners Microsoft nominate for an award are selected from more than 3500 partners, and they go through a thorough evaluation process, during which they are evaluated across Microsoft Denmark's partner segments and product groups. The criteria set up by Microsoft were among others customer satisfaction, proactivity and growth.

"We are proud of this recognition from Microsoft. The award provides evidence that timeXtender is at the forefront of Business Intelligence, and it is a clear indication of our commitment to continued innovation and global growth while never losing sight of our customers' needs." says Heine Krog Iversen, CEO of timeXtender.
